Subject - English

Robert Bruce and the Spider

Read the story below.

Robert Bruce, who was the King of Scotland, was greatly loved by his people. Scotland was captured by the British. Being brave, Robert Bruce tried his best to free his country from the British but could not succeed. Robert Bruce then escaped into a jungle and hid himself inside a cave. He was very depressed. One day he saw a spider who was trying to climb the wall to reach the cobweb. The spider rose inch by inch, on the thread of its web but fell down, when it was just a few inches away from its destination. The spider repeated the attempts to climb, many a time, but fell down. The spider repeated losing heart. The spider was succeeded in its tenth attempt. Robert Bruce was astonished at the courage and determination of the spider. He learnt an important lesson from this tiny creature. He came out of the hiding, gathered his forces and led a very strong attack on the British forces. He was able to defeat his enemy.
