Lesson –Our National Pride

A. Read the following text and answer the following questions:

Lumbini

Lumbini is the birth place of Gautam Buddha. In 249 B.C. Emperor Asoka visited Lumbini and erected the inscribed stone pillar marking the birthplace of the Buddha. Gautam Buddha is recognized as the "Light of the Asia". Lumbini is located in the Rupandehi district of southern Nepal. It is recognized as a pilgrimage of all the people of the world who follow Buddhism. The most important at Lumbini is the Maya Devi Temple. The Maya Devi Temple is surrounded by the brick foundations of ancient temples and monasteries. It is the pride of our country. So, the protection and management of the property of Lumbini is very important. It is necessary to control the impact of visitors, and natural impacts including humidity and the industrial development in the region.

Laliguras is the national flower of Nepal. It is found in the high hills and Himalaya region of Nepal. It is the identity of our country. It is also known as Rhododendron in English. Rhododendron is also a source of traditional medicine. The powder of the flowers mixed with rice helps to cure dysentery. The paste from the leaves applied to the forehead is the treatment of headaches. Similarly, an extract of the bark is used to cure coughs, diarrhea, and dysentery. It is the pride of our country.

Danphe (Lophophorus)

Danphe is the national bird of our country. It is found in rocky, grass covered meadows and winters and mixed forests. The males are adorned with beautiful metallic colors of green, purple, red and blue features. The females are much duller than the male. Hens also have the blue patch around the eyes. It has nine colors. So, it is also called the "naurangi danphe".

Coat of Arms (Nishan Chhap)

Coat of arms is used in the government office. It also gives the identity to our country. The National coat arms is a symbol which denotes an independent state. After the political change of 2063 BS, a new coat of arms has been practiced in Nepal. A male and a female shaking hand in the picture represents the gender equality. It represents all special features like a National flag, National flower, the highest mountain in the world 'Sagarmatha' and three ecological regions of Nepal: Mountain, Hill, and Terai. The written word "Janani janmabhoomi swargadapi gariyasi" means mother and motherland are greater than the heaven.
