Subject- English

1. Read the lesson The Giant Roc once again and complete the following.

Vocabulary

Complete the passage by unscrambling the jumbled words. The clues are given in the brackets.

Sinbad the Sailor is a collection of stories of his seven (a) EGOVYAS (journeys by sea). In each all of the stories, something (b) LTERERIB (very bad) happens. Either the ship is sunk or Sinbad is (c) DASRNETD (left alone) on an island for some reason. In all the stories, he meets kind people, who help him, and he returns to Bagdad a rich man and is able to help the poor. In one voyage, Sinbad arrives at what appears to be a beautiful island, only to discover that the 'island' is really a (d) GIGITANC (very huge) fish! In another, Sinbad is blown to a strange island (e) IBNHDAIET (occupied) by yellow-eyed monkeymen. Sinbad and his fellow travellers hide in a big house but soon realize they are not safe when an enormous giant arrives and begins to eat the men one by one. They manage to (f) CEPSAE (flee) by blinding the giant with red-hot wood. In yet another voyage, Sinbad and his shipmates are captured by (g) BCNANSIAL (people who eat humans). They fatten the men so they can eat them. Here, Sinbad escapes by befriending people who take him to their island. Once, Sinbad's ship is attacked by (h) RSPIEAT (sea robbers) and he is sold to a merchant as a slave!
