Assignment-2077

(Jestha 05, 2077, Monday)

Class: Seven

Subject - English

Study the given rules and complete the exercises.

Question Tag

- A tag question is a short question added to the end of an assertive or imperative sentence.
- We use tag questions to confirm or check information or ask for agreement.
- We use tag questions to check whether something is true.

Some common Rules

- Use negative tag for positive statement and positive tag for negative statement.
- Use a comma to separate the statement and the tag question.
- Start the tag question with a small letter.
- End the tag question with a question mark.
- Use the contracted forms of negative auxiliaries. (isn't, hasn't, wasn't, weren't, aren't)
  - Use the same auxiliary verb, if it is there in the sentence.
  - Always use pronouns. Do not use nouns as the subject of the tags.
  - Use nine pronouns (I, we, you, he, she, it, they, there, one)

Negative statement----- positive tag

Positive statement-----negative tag

- If there is auxiliary verb in sentence use the same auxiliary verb to form question tag.
  - Have----- haven't
  - Has----- hasn't
  - Had----- hadn't
  - Will-----won't
  - Are----- aren't
  - Am ----- aren't
  - Can----- can't
- If there is no auxiliary verb in the sentence:
  - V1 ----- do/ don't
  - V2 ----- did/ didn't
  - V5----- does/ doesn't

Let's go fishing, shall we?

Let me/ us do that, will you?

She'd rather meet a doctor, wouldn't she? ('d + rather+v1 = would rather)

I'd like some biscuits, wouldn't I? ('d+ v1= would)

They'd better wait, hadn't they? ('d+ better+v1= had better)

He'd gone home, hadn't he? ('d+ v3 = had)

This/ that ----- isn't it?

These/ those----- aren't they?

· Use 'will you' in imperative sentences.

Come here, will you?

Open the door, will you?

· Singular auxiliary verbs (is/ was/ has/ does) change to plural auxiliary verbs (are/ were/ have/ do) if the subjects are indefinite pronouns

Somebody/ someone/ everyone/ everybody

Everybody was singing, weren't they?

Nobody helps me, do they?

Someone is there, aren't they?
