Our Duties

Citizens' rights and duties are two sides of the same coin. The sense of duty rose with the rights. We must do to our duties while enjoying our rights. A right is a claim obtained without hurting or harming others. Duty is a responsibility to be done without causing harm to others. Just as lamp does not burn without oil, there is no claiming of rights without duty.

Public welfare works benefit to all. Road construction, supply of clean drinking water and sanitation are the works of local authorities. It ensures public welfare. All get benefits from such work.

Our use of rights must never obstruct other rights. We have right to listen to the radio. But we have no right to disturb others with full volume. This is where we all should be careful. Respect and obey of rules and timely payment of tax is every one's duty. Likewise, love of the country, pride of its history comes under duty. Similarly rights to vote, right to education, and right to property are some of the rights.

Activities

1. "Rights and duties are two sides of the same coin." Explain with examples.
2. Every citizen must pay tax to the government. Do your parents pay tax or not? Ask them and write.
3. Some problems are given below. On the basis of citizen's rights and duties, decide which one is right and which one wrong.
  - a. Imagine you are in a hurry to go to school. You are boarding a local bus but it is overcrowded. You push a person aside for your easy ride.
  - b. There is a fire in the town, you see a person about to smash the electric bulb of the street lamp post. You stop him and say,
"This is a public property. You can't destroy it."

The End.
