1. Read the following text and do the activities that follow:

Hansel and Gretel sat by the fire, and at midday they both ate their pieces of bread. They heard the strokes of an axe and thought their father was nearby. But it wasn't an axe, it was a branch he had tied to a withered tree, and the wind was shaking it to and fro. After sitting there for sometimes, they became so tired that their eyes closed and they fell into a deep sleep. When at last they awoke, it was dark night. When the full moon had risen, Hansel took his little sister by the hand and followed the pebbles, which glistened like newly made silver coins and showed them the way. They walked all night and reached their father's house just as day was breaking.
