Our Rights

Sunita reads in Grade 4. She has friends like Dorje, Muniya and Alam. They take information about children's and women's rights from Social Studies teacher.

Sunita: Namaskar! Miss. We have come to meet you.

Teacher: How can I help you ? Ok! Dorj, Muniya and Alam are here.

Sunita: From people we heard that children have rights. We have no idea about it, Miss. We want you to tell us a little about it.

Teacher: Sure! All things needed for a life with dignity are called children's rights.

For example, you have rights to nutritious food to survive, health service and quality education for your development. Look at a few from the list of children's rights.

Muniya: Oh! Child right is a thing we must have then.

Teacher: Besides, children should be protected from discrimination, violence, bad behavior and insult. Similarly, children's right to involve themselves in the activities of home, family, school and society also come under child right.

Right to Survive

Alam: Miss, what about woman's right? Should we not learn about it ? Please offer to tell us.

Teacher: Why not ! Certainly ! Our constitution has made a provision of woman's rights in the form of fundamental rights. They are as follows:

No woman shall be discriminated because just she is a woman. Every woman shall have right to reproductive health. No violent physical, social, mental or other form of torture shall be inflicted against women. Both sons and daughters have equal right to property.
