Woman dies seeking justice in Rukum

Himalayan News Services

Rukum, March 8, 2013

Kashipura Budha, 45, of Rukumkol, died while she was being rushed to the hospital. She was trying hard to put her point across regarding the complaint she had filed alleging her husband of tormenting her for years.

According to the eyewitnesses, Lal Kumar, Kashipura's husband, started to shout down his wife in front of the police. She fell unconscious while arguing with her husband.

Women's rights activists in Rukum say that many victims in the district lose hope and decide to end their lives as getting justice appear next to impossible.
