

Class: Seven

Subject- English

Animal idioms

Fill in the blanks with the correct options.

fishy
let the cat out of the bag kill two birds with one stone the lion's share

taking the bull by the horns eager beaver chickened out cats and dogs

- a. I wanted to go hiking into the forest, but I when I got to know the dangers involved. (to decide not to do something out of fear)
- b. We had planned a secret party for my parents but it was spoiled because my sister (to reveal a secret)
- c. Ever since my brother got his new painting set, he has been an around the house, painting everything that needs to be painted. (a person who is excited about doing some work)
- d. My mother felt that something was going on when she saw all of us sitting together and talking in whispers. (suspicious)
- e. My little sister got of the cake because she is indulged by everybody in the house. (the largest portion)
- f. What horrible luck! Of all days, today I forgot my umbrella and it started raining (raining heavily)
- g. If you pick up the groceries when you drop your brother off at school, you can (achieve two goals at the same time)
- h. Rahul is a bully and all bullies are cowards. So the best way to tackle him is by (face a challenge or danger directly and boldly)

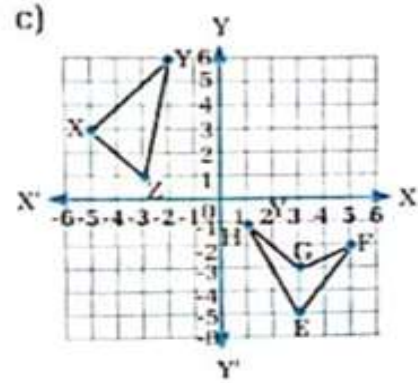

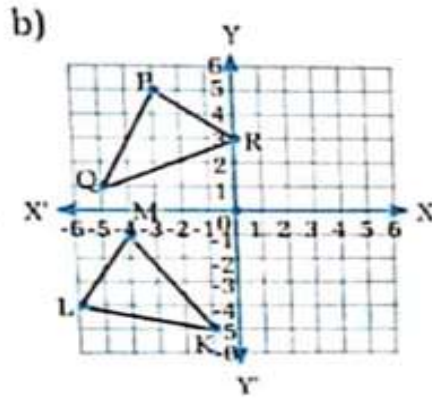

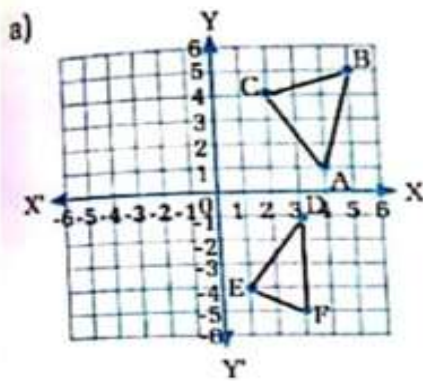

Using the correct forms of the words given

Louis Braille invented the raised dot system of reading and writing for the blind and (visual) impaired. At the age of three, he (accident) stabbed himself in the left eye with an a small tool. He then developed an (infect) and lost vision in the eyes. At that time, visually impaired people had to beg or depend on charity for their (survive). Since Louis was a bright child, he won a scholarship to one of the first schools for the visually impaired in the world, in Paris. Conditions at the school were harsh, but Louis was strongly (determine) to learn. He showed remarkable (proficient) in playing musical instruments. But his greatest (accomplish) was not music; it was his (refuse) to accept the limitations ascribed to visually impaired people. No (effect) method of reading and writing existed at that time for those who could not see. Louis Braille's (invent) changed everything.

Subject- Mathematics

Copy the following figures in your own graph paper and draw their images under the reflection about y-axis. Also, mention the coordinates of the vertices of images.

Plot the following points in a sheet of graph paper and draw triangles joining the points in order. Draw the image of each triangle under the reflection about x-axis and write the coordinates of the vertices of images.

a) A (2, 5), B (6, 3), C (4, 8)

b) P (-4, 6), Q (-3, 4), R (-1, 2)

c) X (-6, -4), Y (-3, -1), Z (-1, -3)

d) E (2, -7), F (5, -3), G (2, -1)

Subject- Science

• Define:

- Crystallization
- Unsaturated solution
- Supersaturated solution
- Centrifugation

• Condenser is used in distillation. Why?

Subject- Social Studies

Topic - Nepali Folk Culture

Submit the final project on the topic Nepali Folk Culture.

The End.